

Ladas Memorial Award Competition

Established in memory of distinguished practitioner and author, Stephen P. Ladas, the Ladas Memorial Award Competition is an annual award that is presented in two categories—Student and Professional—for a paper on trademark law or a matter that directly relates to, or affects, trademarks.

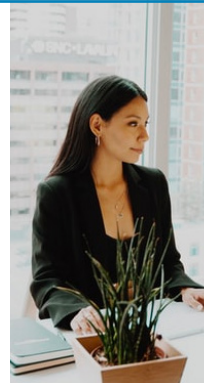

Two student winners will each receive U.S. $1,250 and a complimentary registration to the 2023 Annual Meeting. The professional winner will receive a set of Stephen P. Ladas’s three-volume treatise, Patents, Trademarks, and Related Rights and a complimentary registration to the 2023 Annual Meeting. The winning papers will be considered for publication in The Trademark Reporter, INTA’s legal journal.

CATEGORIES

Student

- ▶ Eligible students must be enrolled as either full- or part-time law or graduate students.
- ▶ For students outside of the United States, university enrollment is acceptable.

Professional

- ▶ Authors may be legal practitioners, business professionals and/or academics.
- ▶ No restrictions regarding level of experience or years in practice apply.

Requirements:

- Subject of the paper must be trademark law or a matter that directly relates to, or affects, trademarks.
- Eligible papers may include both original unpublished manuscripts and published articles that are submitted to INTA by the submission deadline.
- Published articles must have been first published no longer than one year prior to the competition deadline.
- Paper must be a product of the author’s original thought and scholarship.
- Paper may be co-authored.
- More than one paper may be submitted for consideration.
- Paper must be limited to twenty-five pages.

Judging Criteria:

- Nature, breadth and timeliness of subject(s) addressed.
- Originality of subject and of thought.
- Extent of research and scholarship.
- Quality of writing.

→ The deadline to apply is February 1, 2023. Email competitions@inta.org with questions.